

CANADEM

Réserve civile du Canada
Canada's Civilian Reserve

Our Mission

CANADEM is a not-for-profit agency dedicated to advancing international peace and security through the recruitment, screening, promotion and rapid mobilization of Canadian expertise.

Our Values

- ✿ CANADEM supports Canada's determination to strengthen the activities of international organizations, in particular the UN, OSCE, other inter-governmental agencies and institutions, and their non-governmental partners, all working to advance the universal principles of the UN Charter, international peace and security.
- ✿ CANADEM believes that individuals are the key elements of international organizations. Only with the right individuals working as teams can organizations, agencies and missions fully achieve their goals. Identifying those skilled individuals is crucial, and Canada and every nation has a duty to put forward their best.
- ✿ CANADEM is driven by its core vocation to assist international organizations to identify and engage skilled Canadian individuals. This indirectly assists Canadians to find their international niche and achieve their fullest potential in the struggle to advance human rights, democracy, rule of law, good governance, and the multitude of other manifestations of international peace and security.
- ✿ CANADEM commits itself to operating according to the highest standards of Canadian ethical and professional standards. When working outside of Canada it will continue to actively advance Canadian values including peace, order, good governance, democratic development, and the advancement of human rights in particular the rights of women and children. Any CANADEM operational activities such as procurement will remain committed to Canadian best business practice and ethics, and in doing so will contribute to anti-corruption and other such reform objectives.
- ✿ CANADEM believes in the importance of mentoring and facilitating young Canadians to strengthen the ranks of succeeding generations of Canadian international experts.
